I am Blake Johnson, The daughter of the mighty King and Queen of Newcastle
I am the youngest daughter of two very important people
I have done many things in life, all of the things
From spamming my instagram with silly pictures, to sending memes to my parents
And even binge watching a whole season of criminals minds in one day
But i am the best at being the number one fan for 5 seconds of Summer
They are glorified and loyal to us
No one can beat me at being their number one fan, even their parents can't withstand me
I have been here since the beginning
From their first single ¨She looks So Perfect¨
I know everything about them
How Michael almost got burnt to death by a fire breathing floor
Luke has an Obsession with the tuxedo animals that have no ties
Ashton has a hankering for headbands
Calum is half kiwi and not half chinese
Together they make the quirkiest band alive
I have taken every quiz possible about 5SOS
I have gotten them all correct
So that means i am the top fan
And no one can overthrow me or overpower me
Soon i will meet them, either as a VIP at their concert
Or at their favorite restaurants
But no matter what i will meet them
And keep my title as their number 1 fan
